Understanding and using student feedback:

- We have resources to help you interpret and use results including our faculty worksheet with guided prompts and space to record summaries of feedback, actions, and outcomes.
- Members of our Pedagogy, Practice, & Assessment team are available for consultations and can help with:
  - Interpreting OMET results and developing a course of action if necessary.
  - Exploring various methods of assessment to improve teaching.
- In the future:
  - Discuss, teach, and model giving meaningful feedback with your students and give them multiple opportunities to practice giving feedback.
    - Gather important information about students at the beginning of the term by giving a pre-course survey.
    - Check in with students half way through the term by giving a midterm course survey.
- The Teaching Center offers multiple resources to support teaching and learning.

Comments

What did you like best about the recitation instruction?

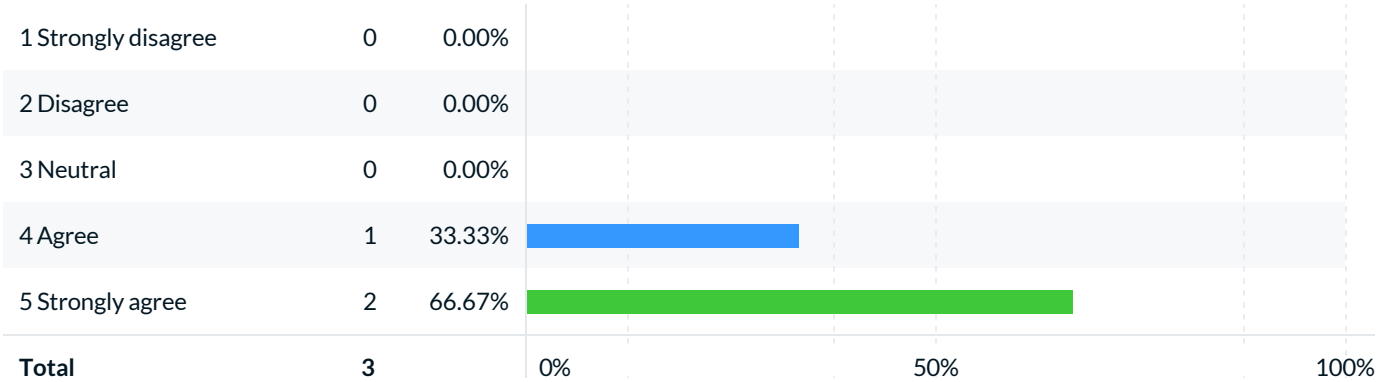

Comments
I enjoyed the group activities during recitation. Engaging with the other students helped me to critically think about the concepts that were then explained in detail.
TA gave good examples that reflected the material and made it easier to understand.

If you were running this recitation, what would you do differently?

Comments
If I was running the recitation I would not do anything differently.
None
